

CGC Online Privacy Policy

Privacy Statement

CGC Inc. ("CGC") supports the highest standards of integrity for every online visitor. When you register at the CGC Web site, our goal is to respect your privacy. This Privacy Policy sets forth how we handle information we obtain from you and learn about you when you visit our Web site, including:

The information we collect;

The choices that are available to you regarding how the information is used and to whom it is disseminated;

Your rights to access and correct or update your personally-identifiable information; and

Our pledge to have reasonable security procedures that are in place to protect against the loss, misuse or alteration of information under our control.

NOTICE: Information We Collect and How We Use It

CGC collects two types of information about you when you visit our site: personal information (including, by way of example only, your name, address, telephone number and e-mail address) and non-personal, aggregate information (such as information regarding the pages on our site that you have visited and your IP address).

1. Personally-Identifiable Information: What We Collect

The personally-identifying information we collect and store about you is the information that you choose to provide to us. We also collect and store information about products you purchase, your credit history, and other commercial information arising out of your business relationship with CGC. This is used by CGC in conjunction with the information that you choose to provide us.

Electronic Mail

We will also gather your personally-identifiable information when you send us an e-mail. We will use this information to respond to your e-mail. We may also use the information to send you notifications about our products and services.

Business Partners/Professional Visitors

Business partners and professional visitors requesting access to specialized content areas of this Web site may be required to provide identifying information.

2. Sharing Your Information

We may share your personally-identifiable information within CGC.

3. Non Personally-Identifiable Information: What We Collect

The CGC Web site may collect non-personally identifiable information during your visit, such as type of browser, operating system, domain name, or IP address. An IP address is a number that is automatically assigned to your computer whenever you're surfing the Web. Web servers -- the big computers that "serve" up Web pages -- automatically identify your computer by its IP address. When you visit pages on CGC's Web site, our servers log your IP address. We do not link IP addresses to any personally identifiable information. This means that your session will be logged, but you remain anonymous to us. IP address information is used only to improve the service of the CGC site, and is then discarded at the end of each session on our site.

CGC also collects information through "referrers" and various environmental variables. A "referrer" is information the Web browser passes along to CGC's Web server that references the URL from which you came. "Environmental variables" include, among other things, the domain from which you access the Internet, the time you accessed our Web site, type of Web browser and operating system or platform used, the Internet address of the Web site you left to visit CGC, the names of the pages you visit while at our Web site, and the Internet address of the Web site you then visit. We collect all of this information to allow us to detect broad demographic trends, to provide information tailored to your interests and to enhance your experience on CGC's Web site. CGC may store "referrer" information for a limited period of time prior to deleting this information.

Profiling

To help us improve our Web site and to ensure that we make every effort to provide you with information and offers that are of interest to you, we may merge your personally-identifiable information with click-stream data and other data we have (including cookies and offline data).

We may also develop a non-identifiable profile on you based on the pages within our site that you visit.

4. Links

This Web site may contain links to other sites. Please be aware that we are not responsible for the privacy practices of such other sites. We encourage our users to read the privacy statements of each and every Web site that they visit. This privacy statement applies solely to information collected when you visit our Web site.

Notification of Changes

If we decide to change our privacy policy, we will post those changes on our Homepage so you will always be aware of what information we collect, how we use it, and under what circumstances we disclose it. We will use information in accordance with the privacy policy under which the information was collected.

CHOICE

CGC provides the following choices regarding the use of your information.

You may choose not to provide us with any contact information.

SECURITY

We make every effort to have reasonable security procedures in place to protect the loss, misuse or alteration of information under our control. If you have any questions about the security at our Website, you can send an email to webmaster@cgcinc.com.
